

WEST VIRGINIA WILDERNESS COALITION PROUDLY PRESENTS

DOUG SCOTT

AUTHOR HISTORIAN ADVOCATE

Doug Scott, policy director for the Campaign for America's Wilderness, is one of the nation's leading wilderness experts. He has been involved in numerous landmark conservation laws over the last 40 years, from the Eastern Wilderness Act of 1975, to the Omnibus Public Lands Management Act of 2009, which included Wilderness protections for areas of West Virginia's Monongahela National Forest. Doug will speak about citizen efforts to protect public lands through our National Wilderness Preservation System, including recent initiatives in West Virginia, and he will present selections from his new book, Our Wilderness: America's Common Ground.
